

DAY ONE

Session I: International Cooperation on developing eHealth eHealth – Improving health care internet-based service-oriented IT Systems
Prof Dr. Christoph Meinel

eHealth: Research and Development issues in developing countries eContext, Business opportunities and prospects Emuoyibofarhe O. Justice.

Session II: Telemedicine and eHealth, Applications and Infrastructures
Mobilizing stakeholders for one thousand telemedicine units
Ayuba Kadafa

Health tourism and eHealth
Dr Tshepo Maaka MD

Session III: 3G+ Technology, Satellites and eHealth Universal health service delivery in Nigeria: Leveraging the emerging telecommunication infrastructure for an integrated eHealth
Dr. Adesina Iluyemi

Interoperability in eHealth: The missing link
Prof. E. R. Onyejekwe

Session IV: National Telemedicine and eHealth Initiative and Developments
Static Pathology in Rural African setting
A pilot experience at Makererre University, Uganda
Dr. Ian Guyton Kwadu Munabi

Overview of Telemedicine Project in Nigeria: A challenge to improve the health care quality in hospitals and health care centres in rural areas
Wolfgang Trappe

DAY TWO

Session I: Open source in Health Information Technology
Use of Open Source Technology in Health Care:
Focus on Low resource environment
Dr. Molly Cheah

DICOM in Hospital Information System
Michael Enwere

Session II: National Telemedicine and eHealth initiatives and Developments
Ghana Telemedicine Pilot Project, Ghana:
An Overview of the Millennium Village project
Eric Akosah

PrimaCare and its use for Quality improvement in primary care practice
Dr. Molly Cheah

Session III: National Telemedicine and eHealth initiatives and Developments
Telemedicine activities in Federal Medical Center, Owo, Ondo State
Bolaji Ajibabi

From Patient/Client-centric to Chaos
Prof. E.R. Onyejekwe

Action plan

Recommendations

Concluding statement

Appendix

a List of members of the Local Organizing Committee and Partners

b List of delegates to the conference

c Lead papers presented at the conference